Council Holds Stormy Hearing

OCEAN SHORE R. R. BLAST OVERRULED BY DC COUNCIL

"Bellyband" Around Area To Be Eliminated

Claiming legal defects in "each and every test," the Ocean Shore Railroad Monday night challenged the validity of the city's proposed plan to put down a street over a strip of land in Westlake of which both the Railroad and Henry Doelger claim title.

In one of the longest public hearings on record, Gardiner Johnson, lawyer for the Railroad, matched knowledge, tactics and patience with the city council and Earnest A. Wilson, attorney for the city in the case.

When Johnson took his seat at 11:30 p.m. the city had overruled the Railroad's protest against the street, and councilmen awaited the next move of the organization that has promised to do everything in its power to block the city's proposed assessment district.

Center of Fight

The center of the controversy is a strip of land 60 feet wide which runs (in Westlake) from the end of White street north and east to Highway No. 1. Earlier this year the Railroad claimed ownership to this land, and succeeded in getting an injunction forbidding Henry Doelger to cross the strip. In effect, this blocked Doelger from moving west and south across his land, and has halted home building in a large portion of Westlake.

In placing its claim to the land, the Railroad also claimed damages of $375,000. This case is to be heard in San Mateo Superior Court Monday, October 16. The end result is expected to determine whether or not the Railroad or Doelger owns the property in question.

City Action

Meanwhile, the city was petitioned to place a street directly over the controversial strip. The city complied, and at Monday night's meeting set the machinery in motion to put down the street.

Once the city has started work on the road, Doelger, as any citizen, can cross the strip at will.

Road Illegal

As expected, the Railroad fought the city's proposal Monday night.

Books to You

Book conscious readers can take a slap on the back and a kick in the pants at the same time this week.

The flowers go to all those who so generously answered the request for reading matter on Korean hospital ships. To date the Daly City Record office, collecting point for the books, has received several hundred pocket-size and regular volumes in addition to many magazines and comic books.

The books are to be turned over to Captain W. R. Murray, who will place them on his ship for wounded veterans who will read them on the long voyage home from Korea.

As for the brick bats, we throw them freely at the thousands of citizens who each day take advantage of the Daly City library, gripe about the few books, and pass it all off with a shrug. It seems few of these readers have ever stopped to ask why the facilities of their library are no better.

The answer, for the most part, is simple . . . there is neither the proper amount of money in the city budget to meet the needs of the library, nor is there enough space in the building to accommodate the books.

Right now we're not so much interested in the budget, as means of expanding the facilities of the library. While a new building is needed, we don't believe the city is in a position to go that far at this time. However, there is no reason

Armed Robbers Get $202 From Silver Moon Tavern

Training a nickel-plated revolver on a customer and a bartender, two men late Tuesday morning robbed the Silver Moon Tavern, 212 School, of $202.

The two men, described by bartender Gino Giovacchino to be about 26 years old, entered the bar and ordered a fifth of whiskey. When Giovacchino said he didn't have a license to sell bottled whiskey, the two men sat down and ordered drinks.

Draws Revolver

As Giovacchino poured, the first man his drink, the unidentified bandit drew a .32 or .38 calibre revolver, barking at the barkeeper "Put your hands up." At the same time he whirled on the stool velling the same command to Fred Rosino, the only customer in the bar.

The robber then directed both men to put their hands flat on the bar, warning them: "Don't fool around, we have a man outside with a rifle."

As the thief with the pistol removed a wallet from Rosino's back pocket (it contained $10), the second man went around behind the bar, emptied the cash register, and removed Giovacchino's wallet (it contained $12).

Still training his pistol on Rosino and the bartender, the thief backed into the phone booth and ripped the phone from the wall. He then directed the two men to count to 30 before moving.

Leaves Drink Behind

The thieves dashed into the street and disappeared before Giovacchino had an opportunity to call police.

The bartender said both men failed to pay for, or touch the whiskey they had ordered.

Fire Prevention Week Ends Here

Although Fire Prevention week is almost over in Daly City, citizens should keep in mind the basic lessons of fire prevention 365 days of the year.

So warned Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy today who noted that 80 per cent of Daly City's fires could have been prevented with a little care and thought.

Attempting to carry this lesson to every resident, the Fire Department has been busy this week speaking before various civic groups, schools, and other organizations.

In addition, the department has distributed pamphlets to the schools and supervised a number of fire drills. Banners have been put up across Mission street and a film has been shown in the Daly City Theatre...all to stress National Fire Prevention week.

Not to be forgotten is the fire truck from Company No. 1 that has spread the word about fire prevention by banner and microphone through the streets of Daly City.

CITY TO DISCUSS PLANS TO ACQUIRE THORNTON BEACH

Amber Light On For Lease Of Land

The amber light was on this week for Daly City's acquisition of some 25 acres composing Thornton Beach.

Mayor Paul Green was advised by the San Mateo County planning commission that they have approved the city's acquisition of the undeveloped park situated just west of Skyline boulevard behind Westlake.

The mayor said he would meet with the Commission and state officials sometime this month to iron out problems connected with possible acquisition.

State Lease

While the state, according to a letter received by the mayor from Frank Skillman (planning commissioner), will lease the land to the city for 50 years, the mayor hopes to acquire it permanently.

"It would be foolish for us to spend thousands of dollars over a 50 year period to beautify the beach area and then find we had to return it to the state," Mayor Green said.

Although the city council has not approved the acquisition, at an earlier meeting they appeared in favor of such action if the terms were right.

Beach Land

Should the city take over the land, it would give residents one of the finest beaches in this area. As planned, the city would beautify the area and make it a park and picnic grounds.

Presently the beach is owned by the county. However, under a state park plan the county will turn it over to the state and the state (if agreeable to Daly City) will lease, or give it to this community.

83 More SM County Men Face Draft

Orders for induction of 83 more San Mateo County men in November were received by the county's two draft boards this week.

At the same time Washington announced it will take 40,000 more men from the nation in December. The county's share of the December call will be announced later.

The November induction will be the county's third call. In September 39 men entered the service and today (October 13) 26 men from the north half of the county will be sworn in, while on October 27, 34 from the south half will be called.

The November draft will take 36 men from the north county on November 24 and 47 men from the south on November 30.

Everyone Asked To Sign Crusade For Freedom Roll

With an aim of 5,000 signatures from this area, the Crusade for Freedom was reporting great progress during the week in both Colma and Daly City.

Dan O'Connell is county chairman for the drive which opened Monday and will conclude this week end. Walter Rector, prominent Daly City insurance man, heads the campaign in the Daly City area.

According to O'Connell, the main purpose of the crusade is to enable each American to take a personal part in a nation-wide crusade for freedom, faith and peace throughout the world by signing a scroll which will be placed in the permanent foundation of the Freedom Shrine in Berlin, where a Freedom Bell will be hung.

A replica of this Freedom Bell was exhibited on a truck which stopped in Daly City Wednesday.

Containers will be set out in various places of public assembly so that voluntary funds may be contributed to help build more radio stations in Europe to answer Communistic lies and carry the message of democratic truth to enslaved peoples.

On July 4, the first such radio station, entitled Radio Free Europe, when on the air with native language broadcasts to Czechoslovakia and Rumania. Similar programs were soon added, beamed to Poland, Hungary and Bulgaria, right up to the backdoor of the Kremlin, six hours a day, seven days a week.

Scrolls are now available in the Bank of America in both Colma and Daly City, in Belli Market, and Sprouse-Reitz. Everyone is urged to put her or his name on the Crusade for Freedom scrolls, Rector said.

Flourine Won't Be Used Here...Yet

Plans to put flourine in Daly City water have been cancelled for the time being, Mayor Paul Green said today.

The decision was based on a report by County Health Director H. D. Chope. Chope advised that until present government tests have been completed with flouridation it would not be wise to use the chemical.

Early tests seem to indicate that fluorine added to a city's water supply will cut down tooth decay as much as 50 per cent. Aware of these early findings, the city made inquiry to see whether or not it would be wise to employ the fluorine in the local water supply.

Dr. Chope also asserted that present costs of fluorine probably put it beyond the budget of most communities.

DC EAGLES PLAN GALA BARN DANCE NEXT SATURDAY

Money To Be Used For Runyon Fund

It's barn dance time in Daly City, or at least it will be next Saturday, October 21 when the Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848 F.O.E. holds the fall fete.

Place of the barn dance will be the Eagles Hall, 3342 San Jose avenue. Outside of a good time for all, the purpose of the dance will be to raise money for the Damon Runyon cancer fund. Eagles throughout the country will be holding similar dances for the fund.

All Eagles and their invited guests are asked to take part in the gala barn dance.

But a note of warning...those who fail to appear in some appropriate costume are subject to a "heavy fine," Tom Rae, Eagles secretary, said.

Members who are unable to attend the dance are urged to contribute to the cancer fund, either monetarily or in the form of a prize for the party. Contributions may be brought in or sent to Tom Rae, 6272 Mission street.

Parents Hear Of Four D. C. Marines

News of four Daly City Marines comes to the forefront this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Bricker, Sr., 313 Peoria, learned early this week that their two contributions to the Marine Corps, Leo and Jim, have been separated by Uncle Sam.

Word was received that seventeen-year-old Private Jim had disembarked for the Far East theatre from San Diego on October 1

A phone call from Pfc. Leo, 18, informed his parents of his graduation from boot training today at the San Diego Marine Training Center.

Leo telephoned his folks that he expects a short leave soon and then will report to Camp Pendleton.

Younger brother Jim got the jump on Leo in joining the Leatherneck Corps. He signed papers in July last year. Leo followed suit two months before he was graduated from Jefferson Union High school last June.

Jim was in boot camp at Camp Pendleton last year and spent two weeks at San Diego recently before his unit left for overseas two weeks ago. Jim was home on furlough in July.

Pfc. Richard Sims, 17, and Pfc. Jim Benedict, 18, also are currently stationed in San Diego.

Sims, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Sims, 267 Miriam, also will complete his boot training today. Sims, a Marine since March recently posted his outfit's highest score and made expert with the carbine. Like Bricker, Sims expects leave soon and then will go to Camp Pendleton.

Mrs. Gene Benedict, 160 Goethe indicates that her son, Pfc. Jim Benedict, 18, has about three more weeks to go at San Diego. Benedict joined the Marine Reserves in February and was activated in July.

Pfc's Bricker, Sims and Benedict were all pals when they attended Jefferson Union High.

High Powered Slug "Creases" W'Lake Home

Police today were looking for the "sloppy shooter" who put a high-powered rifle slug through the roof and dining room of the R. F. Moretti home at 43 Cliffside drive.

The Moretti family left home at 8 a.m. Saturday to reurn home at 1 p.m. Sunday to find the slug embedded in the wall of their dining room.

In flight the bullet had ripped a hole in the roof, the ceiling of the dining room and the side wall. It had been fired somewhere west and south of the Moretti home.

PREVIEWING the OLPH "Carnival of Nations," these children are getting in practice for the many games and events to be offered at the three day fete. The celebration, which opens today, will run until Sunday. Evidently enjoying themselves left to right are: Jean Kaufman, Leona de Lamendola and Thomas McInerney. Annual Fete Slated For Three Day Stand

Well, tonight's the night (Friday)! At last the doors of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish hall will be opened to the public to take you to the Carnival of Nations.

The last stitches have been taken; cakes are all baked, waiting to be frosted; the booths are all in order, the last piece of crepe paper taken up and the last telephone call has been made. Everyone is in his place with welcoming smiles.

Family dinners have been thrown together tonight, and gulped hastily. We don't want to waste a minute of the Carnival and we can always get something at the Cafe de Paree. The family is off to the Carnival!

Sneak Preview

Here is a little preview of the fun to come. Notice the great ocean liner, SS "Fiesta." Let's get aboard —our first stop on our imaginary journey is Switzerland. We know you can't get there by boat, but we don't have to be technical in our imagination. Swiss Alpine climbers Lucier and Crooker, the two Bobs, will man the Ham booth. Across the hall is Katinka McDougal and a group of Holland honeys displaying hundreds of tiny dolls. Our itinerary is a little mixed up, but here are a couple of dashing Spaniards, Bill Whalen and Jim Gallagher, who have something new to offer, a Sports booth.

A group of Chinese cutups offer a variety of stuffed toys. Catherine Ricci is the boss here, assisted by Janet and Leona Fellman.

The Irish, Too

Irish colleens, with Ann Drury in charge, are surrounded by luscious cakes to be given to some lucky people.

Alma Garibaldi's Italian Flower booth will be surrounded, as usual, by a throng of flower lovers admiring the beautiful plants. Emilie Garcia and Ruth Cresta, in authentic Mexican costumes, will be in charge of a grocery store, while, over in the corner, Scotch lassies Virginia Stanley, Esther Nolan, Dorothea Brush and Joanne Sturdevant, will satisfy your sweet-tooth with delicious candies.

Odors of good cooking and coffee will draw us irresistibly to the Cafe de Paree. Here Susan Schroeder and a group of chefs from St. Mary's Court of the Catholic Daughters of America have worked hard to anticipate all your wishes. Refreshments will be served at all times.

Games Galore

Games galore will be in evidence and we must not forget to try our skill at the garage games. Every night many awards will be given, but everyone who takes our tour of nations is bound to be a winner, if only in fun.

Our trip is over? Goodness, no, it's only begun. Follow the swarm of youngsters across the yard to the children's concessions. You can't miss the place as the walls are bulging with noise, laughter, fun and small fry. Here is Early America, with Chairman Jo Lamendola trying to keep the ship on an even keel. Pre-Thanksgiving Bazaar To Be Held November 10-11 By Eagles Auxiliary

Preparations for the coming pre-Thanksgiving bazaar given by the ladies of Colma Vista Grande Auxiliary have gone into high gear this week, after a chairman meet in the home of Mrs. Arthur Heyden, program chairman, recently.

The festival will take place November 10-11 at Eagles Hall, 3342 San Jose avenue, opening up Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. till midnight, continuing Saturday at noon till closing. After 8 p.m. only members and guests will be admitted on Saturday.

A turkey dinner slated on Sunday, November 12, will be served from 4 to 8 p.m. Reservations can be made by calling PLaza 5-3931.

The theme of the bazaar will take on the appearance of old China, with its many colorful booths and the Golden Buddha spuing exotic incense.

The following chairmen have been appointed to participate in booths: Mrs. Marge Kennedy, cigarette booth; Mrs. Alberta Diebel, music box; Mrs. Dora Black, apron; Mrs. Edrie Summers Sr., flowers; Mrs. Lorene Gardner, cake; Mrs. Arthur Heyden, dolls; Mrs. Donna Almquist, candy; Mrs. Harriet Meinzer, grocery; Mrs. Irene Rosenberg, children; Mrs. Charlot Gonzales, refreshment; Mrs. Dolly Davison, penny pitch; Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, fortune; Miss Edrie Summers Jr., flower vendor; Mrs. Mary Wheeler, hat check; Mrs. Lillia Taggert, cashier.

After the meeting the chairmen were served refreshments by Mrs. Arthur Heyden, and left for home with ideas running in their minds of dragons, incense and rickshaws to convey to their committees.

COLMA ON THE DECLINE

Community May Lose 25% Of Area

While Colma's population underground is growing steadily, the topside district, both population and area ways, today holds the record for being the only San Mateo county community shrinking instead of growing.

The town, whose population recently dropped 25 per cent (from 354 to 262), may lose one-quarter of its 1,600-acre area. This was disclosed at the regular meeting of the city council Wednesday when councilmen took under advisement a request by the Crocker estate for a "friendly divorce" of 393 acres from the eastern section of Colma.

Divorce Wanted

The request was based on plans of the Crocker Estate to develop some 4,000 acres of land just east of Colma and Daly City. Under a new master zoning plan (to be adopted at the council's next meeting, November 8) it would be impossible for a large developer to build small homes and industry in Colma. With this in mind, plus their plans for future development, the Crocker estate has made their request for the "divorce."

None of the city councilmen will give an opinion on the request, although it is generally felt it will be given.

Petition Possible

Hal Cowan, city attorney, said that if Colma rejects the "divorce" action, the Crocker Estate could resort to a petition. Should the petition be signed by but 10 per cent of Colma's 264 residents, it would be necessary for the council to call a special disincorporation election.

Rather than risk the election, and the expense of same, the council probably will go along with the Crocker Estate request.

One other side of the question was explored by Mayor John Price today when he noted that the master zoning plan has not yet been adopted. Some Colma residents believe the plan may be revised so as to allow the Crocker Estate to stay within the city limits and still proceed with plans for development.

Drive-in Theatre

Other important action of the council Wednesday was to reject a request by A. Conti for a permit to build a drive-in theatre between El Camino Real and Junipero Ser-

The council rejected the request as they felt a theatre was out of place in a community whose principal industry centers around graveyards.

Another important action of the council was to take the loyalty oath made mandatory by a recent state law. Not only the councilmen, but all city employees will take the oath within the next few days, Mayor Price said.

We'd advise the PTA leaders and other civic-conscious citizens to look into this matter. We assure them it will prove highly interesting.

Meetings

Rumor has it that the next meeting of the Daly City Recreation Commission will be a revelation to anyone who wants to take the time to drop around. This meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, October 17, at 8 p.m. in the Daly City council chambers. It is open to the public, and of vital interest to all those concerned with recreation problems.

Also, the next meeting of the Daly City council, Monday, October 16, at 8 p.m., shuld draw a good crowd.

Telephone Conversation

A friend of ours had occasion to call a woman the other day. She didn't know the lady, but when the receiver was lifted on the other end our friend heard: "Women's wear."

Believing she had the wrong number, our friend was about to hang up when a cheerful voice added: "That's all right, this isn't a store, I just answer the phone the way I feel like it at the time."

"Bing" Bolger

Sgt. Bill Bolger, pillar of the Daly City police department, has added a new phase to his many activities. When he isn't busy making up reports and tracking down the criminal element, Bill breaks into song.

Those in the know report his vocal accomplishments are a threat to most shower baritones, but at this time won't topple either Crosby or Sinatra off their respective thrones.

Bill's favorite song is concerned with certain "snookums," identity of whom he will reveal to no one. What was that phrase about life beginning after 40?

Pete Bordson Suffers Burns

Recovering from second degree burns of his left hand and face today is Pete Bordson, 614 Templeton, Daly City's humane society head.

Bordson suffered the burns at 11:15 a.m. Sunday when, lighting the furnace in his basement, an accumulation of gas around the furnace door exploded. The explosion covered Bordson's left hand with flames and burned his face.

Rushed to Junipero Serra hospital in a police car, Bordson was treated for his burns. He is expected to be back to work within a few days.

More About Ocean Shore R. R.

Johnson claimed the city's assessment district to set up "Weston Road" was illegal for a variety of technical reasons.

Naming the alleged defects as "fatal errors" in the city's procedures, Johnson lashed out at the city council declaring he would use every means in his power to block the street work.

Two of the "fatal errors" Johnson listed were:

1. While the city has declared an assessment district to put down a street over a 60-foot strip of land, they make no provision for the 70 feet on each side of the strip which the Ocean Shore Railroad claims it owns. With this additional 140 feet, the Railroad can prevent the city from geting to, or working on the 60 foot strip.

2. The city has failed in the preliminary proceedings to show the sum it will pay the Ocean Shore Railroad for severence damages for the property they allegedly own.

Wilson Replies

Following Johnson's "case," Wilson replied on part of the city. He said the public hearing was "legislative in nature, and if there were any errors they would be taken care of at a later date." He assured the council they not only had the legal right to condemn the strip of land for a street but:

"The only rights the Ocean Shore Railroad has in this case is the right to be paid for the value of lands taken from them. If in the original proceedings we have not taken all the land, we will amend the proceedings to include the additional land" . . . (the 70-foot strip on either side of the proposed street).

Wilson asserted that the city was morally justified in its action, if for no other reason than to remove the "bellyband across the housing development (Westlake)," which will hold up construction of new homes.

"Many will benefit from the city's action," Wilson concluded.

Overruled

At 10:30 p.m. the council declared the protest was overruled, and proceeded with the passing of certain documents necessary to set up the assessment district to build "Weston Drive." Their decision was based on the advice of Wilson, who claimed Johnson's case was not valid.

The council's decision, however, did not quiet Johnson, who several times during the proceedings jumped to his feet and challenged the legality of certain documents. His persistence finally won when it came to opening of bids for the job of putting down the street.

Bids Opened

There were two bids, one from L. C. Smith Co. for $40,854 and the other from Henry Doelger for $36,018. Examining Doelger's bid, Johnson said it was invalid as Doelger was not a registered "contractor."

The council then declared a brief recess, and when it convened said it would delay action on awarding the contract until a special meeting Monday evening, October 16.

Meanwhile, despite the Railroad's protest, Mayor Paul Green said today the city would proceed with eminent domain proceedings against the property. This will mean filing a complaint, and setting aside a sum of money to be paid the rightful owner when the courts adjudge how much the property is worth.

The mayor said he did not know whether or not the Railroad intended to start proceedings to block the eminent domain, or against the legality of setting up the assessment district.

Johnson had no comment on the Railroad's next move, although he "warned" the city council that he would do everything in his power to prevent the road going in until such time as the owner of the property is determined.

City May Rip Up Own Car Tracks

Sick of waiting for action by the state or San Francisco, Daly City this week took steps to tear up the streetcar tracks on Mission.

The tracks have held up planned traffic signals and channelization at Mission and Hillcrest boulevard and Mission and Market for the past two years.

Mayor Paul Green requested an estimate of cost from the Division of Highways No. 4 for ripping up the tracks. He said if the cost wasn't too high the city would proceed with the job in the near future.

Back in 1947 both the state and San Francisco gave assurance that they would rip up the tracks. To date there has been nothing but promises.

Plans call for a $52,000 channelization job, $33,000 of which would be borne by the city and the remainder by the state.

NEWS OF YOUR NEIGHBORS

George Vandoke, 401 Wellington, is wondering today who has got what against him and his automobile. Last Sunday he rolled the car out of his garage only to find he had run over a mass of roofing nails which carefully had been strewn in his driveway. After he had fixed a blowout, Vandoke reported the incident to the police. A few hours later he called officers again: "Someone has taken up all the nails," he said.

E. C. Hillgrove, 1167 Brunswick, this week received a set of lost keys from the Disabled American Veterans. Attached to the keys was a DAV Idento-Tag, miniature license tag for key rings, which is distributed to 30,000,000 motorists each year and the replica of their state license plates enables the DAV to return 5,000 keys a month from its national headquarters in Cincinnati. In addtion to key-loss insurance, the Idento-Tag through contributions enables the DAV to maintain its free rehabilitation service for disabled veterans and their dependents.

OFF THE RECORD

By Roy Hurlbert

The luck of the Irish ran out in South Bend, Indiana, last Saturday. And the tears flowed like wine.

Some mighty big and rough athletes wept unashamedly after Purdue's Boilermakers gave Notre Dame the business in halting Frank Leahy's amazing win streak at 39 straight.

But those downhearted men from the Golden Dome institution weren't alone in their darkest hour.

People the country over were divided on the significance of Notre Dame's loss.

Thousands of folks are still gloating over Purdue's upset win. A lot of people resented Irish supremacy and still do. It's hard to like a winner all the time. And Notre Dame, well, they've been top rung for such a long time.

But even more sports fans sort of felt sorry for the team that heretofore could do no wrong. The Irish are to football what the Yankees are to baseball. In a class of their own.

People look to the Irish as the epitome of pigskin perfection. And for the last four years the Irish were just that.

Notre Dame's opening triumph this year over a good North Carolina gang made the Monday morning quarterbacks and Irish faithfuls think that this year would be a repeat of last.

Leahy, always the pessimist and perfectionist, previewed his campaign with a statement that he would lose at least two or three games. But he's said that before.

Virtually nobody, even the so-called grid experts foresaw defeat for Notre Dame Saturday. We're quite sure even Leahy was more surprised than anybody with Purdue's performance.

Purdue won that ball game but good. The unheralded and sophomore-led gridders from Bloomingston, Indiana, were 21 points ahead at the half and coasted home although outscored two touchdowns to one in the final 30 minutes.

Notre Dame's usually vaunted passing attack failed to click as Bobby Williams completed only seven times in 20 throws.

In short, Purdue's stature was never in doubt. The Boilermakers were simply the better team Saturday.

Football poll - makers demoted the Irish nine places because of the Purdue debacle. But don't let that defeat throw you one bit. We still think Notre Dame could be the best in the country before the season is over.

Notre Dame lost heavily through graduation of several outstanding men. Sitko, Martin and Hart are missed this time. But the Irish have a habit of developing replacements who make you forget the old reliables. Right now, Leahy's present crop doesn't compare to his previous teams, but they're coming along.

In one respect, the setback might have done the Notre Damers a lot of good. They've been playing under extreme pressure each time they stepped out on a field. Everybody has gunned for the Irish and everybody will continue to set their sights on football's finest.

The Irish have a great comeback tradition and you can bet they'll be giving all they've got. Sounds funny, doesn't it, to feature powerful Notre Dame having to comeback. Well, it isn't too absurd, for if a Frank Leahy team finishes second best in this day and age, it's quite an oddity.

In ten seasons of coaching Fretful Frank's teams have won 81 games, lost six and tied five. You can see the man means business.

Notre Dame's remaining schedule, as usual, is second to none in collegiate ranks. Their opponents are top grade. Army and upper-bracket Big Ten teams want no part of the Irish. and you find few of the claimants to the title of "team of the year" on Notre Dame's schedule. Not if these pretenders to the throne can help it.

Starting with Tulane tomorrow, Notre Dame will meet foes who will be eager to "have at" this team that succumbed to "little" Purdue. They know that the Irish can be beaten.

Somebody's going to get fooled. And it might not be the kids who had an off-day against the Boilermakers.

Keep your eyes focused on Notre Dame from now on. Did you ever see a bunch of Irishmen when they're mad?

Canepa Will Hurl For Marie's Place Sunday

Aldo Canepa, a kid who's taking on the reputation of being a pitching workhorse, will attempt to make Marie's Place a winner in the team's Class A Winter League opener Sunday with Coastside A. C. at Ocean View Park at noon.

Canepa performed twice last week as Marie's Place split a doubleheader.

Lobdell Cleaners sent Canepa and mates to the cleaners, 7-3 in the first game. Aided by repeated bunting, Marie's Place shelled Weststate Realty 11-3 in Canepa's second attempt to win Sunday.

During the independent season Canepa worked in nine tilts with four wins and three losses.

Second baseman Angelo Craviotto and shortstop Mario Leveroni, Jefferson Frosh football hopeful, lead Marie's Place to a 7-7 record in fourteen weeks of non-league play.

Craviotto was the team leader with a robust .346, while Leveroni finished with a batting average of .302.

Nine of the regulars wound up the independent season with batting marks over .300.

Touch-football Teams Tussle At Marchbanks

Second-week action gets underway tomorrow in the Daly City Recreation Department and Jefferson Elementary School District's touch-football league.

Jefferson tackles Crocker A.M. and O.L.P.H. will do battle with Crocker P.M.

Herbie Frost's two touchdowns paced Jefferson's 14-0 win over Crocker P.M. last Saturday. Dick Giusti trapped a P.M. runner behind the goal line for the other two points.

O.L.P.H. reversed a previous 27-0 loss to Crocker A.M. in taking a 15-0 win a week ago.

"B" game results were just the opposite of the "A" contests.

Crocker P.M. barely edged Jefferson's "B" squad, 2-0, on a safety. Crocker A.M. "B" team used a passing offense to subdue the O.L.P.H. "B's," 24-0.

The touch football league is sponsored by the City and School District each fall.

Some 300 persons attended the opening games last week at Marchbanks Park.

Sarto A. C. Meets Foster's In Tilt For League Lead

An early season dispute for league leadership in the Golden Gate Park Double A baseball loop will be settled this Sunday at Marchbanks Park as Joe Sarto A.C. and Foster's collide at 12 noon.

Both clubs are perched on top of the circuit's ten-team field with two victories apiece.

Manager Vic Baher probably will send righthander Johnny Rubsic against the restaurant outfit. Foster's is expected to counter with possibly the best pitcher in the league, Lefty Collins, former USFer and now valuable property of the Boston Red Sox.

The clever Collins didn't have to work too hard last week as he limited Molkenbuhr Bros. to five hits in Foster's 7-2 conquest.

Rubsic, a real comer who can throw with the best of 'em, made his first start a winning one or two weeks back, edging Molkenbuhr, 8-7.

Sarto A.C. made it two straight Sunday with a 7-2 victory over Marty's the Geary.

Twenty-one-year-old Don Mossi, Bakersfield professional, was exceptional in his initial stint for pilot Baher. He allowed a measly four hits, struck out nine and issued only four bases on balls.

Marty's enjoyed a short-lived 2-0 lead, but Sarto A.C. finally got to hurler Hal Flinn for a total of 13 hits.

Flinn, erstwhile Balboa High and City College ace, recently arrived from Las Vegas where he had an 18-12 mound mark for the Sunset League team.

Catcher Ben Parodi led the Sarto uprising with four for four, including two runs batted in. Third sacker Johnny Olcese and Fred Sims, shortstop, belted triples. Jim Silacci, Olcese and Ted Welp collected two hits each.

Foster's squeezed by Marty's 3-2 in their opener.

Other Golden Gate Park League results saw Les Vogel's beating Gordon's, 12-7, La Scala Restaurant (formerly Carlos Inn) taking Lucky Lager, 6-0, and Mike Chino's topping the Ocean Avenue Merchants, 7-4.

Eddie Cereghino was on the hill for Chioino's.

Orlich's 10's and 20's Begin PAL Hoop Slate

Impressive in practice games, Coach Mike Orlich's 110 and 120 pound Jefferson Union High quintets take on Burlingame's two lightweight teams next Thursday at Burlingame.

The 10s and 20s started PAL play yesterday against Lincoln of San Jose, but results weren't available at press time.

The 10s have captured three out of five practice tilts, while the 20s dropped but one out of five.

Victory came for the 10s over Lincoln of San Francisco, Polytechnic and Sacred Heart. They lost to Tamalpais and San Mateo.

The 20s have lost only to Polytechnic and have defeated Lincoln of S. F., Tamalpais, San Mateo and Sacred Heart.

Orlich greeted only two veterans back from last fall's 10s, Dick Trantham of Brisbane and Paul Bollinger. Trantham and Jim Costello have been pace-makers to date.

Freshman Don Delbon leads a very promising 120s crew. Four lettermen from the 10s complete the starting five. These are Bud Silva, Larry Hutchinson, Don Rose and Phil Coffman.

Rookie Record has shown fine court skill in the pre-league encounters.

Church Services To Open In Westlake

First services of the newly-organized Westlake Baptist Community church will be held this Sunday at 11 a.m. at 37 Cliffside drive.

The temporary location will soon be replaced by a new church which will take care of the fast-growing membership of the organization.

The Rev. Roy L. Milam will institute a strong young people's program in church and recreational activities as a constant barrier against juvenile delinquency.

Rev. Miam's youth work at the First Baptist church, San Francisco, has done much to keep many children off the streets. This is one facet of the church's constant endeavor to combat the ever-increasing problem of child delinquency.

Gelsi's Cavern Face D. P. Nine Sunday In Opener

Manager Eddie White's Gelsi's Cavern nine opens its official league campaign Sunday against Double Play at Marchbanks Park in a National League Double A game.

Either Fred Lucia or Fred Fazio will start for the liquor team when the first pitch is thrown at 2 p.m.

Gelsi's surrendered a 2-0 sixth inning lead to the San Francisco Fire Department last Sunday and lost out 6-3 before a good crowd.

Both of the Freds, Lucia and Fazio, worked in that order, against the firemen, who bunched 13 hits in the right combination.

Tom Noonan, Harry Krohn, and Vince DeJohnie banked out two hits apiece in Gelsi's ten-hit attack, but their efforts weren't enough to put out the fire started by the department.

Gen. Pershing PTA To Meet Oct. 19th

General Pershing P. T. A. will meet in a night session at the school on Thursday, October 19, according to Mrs. D. C. Gensel, P. T. A. spokesman.

James Snell, elementary school superintendent, teachers and the principal of General Pershing will hold a panel discussion.

Parents and friends are urged to attend the meeting and questions regarding pupils and the schools' programs will be answered.

General Pershing is located on Hanover street between Acton and Oliver streets.

Commendation cards are presented by the Division of Fish and Game for the return of tags found on striped bass, salmon, catfish, and other species of California fish. Fishermen are eligible for prizes offered by cooperating sportsmen and merchants for return of salmon tags, and tagged whole kelp and sand bass.

JEFF FROSH SOPHS ENGAGE BUCCANEERS IN FOOTBALL DEBUT

Jefferson Union High School's frosh-soph football team officially opens a seven-game schedule at home this afternoon in a non-league encounter with Balboa's Buccaneers.

Kickoff is set at 3 o'clock.

Coach Joe McGrath will have nine newcomers in his starting lineup. Center Stan Davis and right guard Dave Martinez are the only returning regulars from last year's frosh-soph aggregation.

McGrath's single wing attack is built around right half Mario Leveroni, a hard runner and a speedy one.

Also ready for duty are ends Joe Lewkowitz and Bob Golobic, tackles Paul Champion and Pete Hardister, guards Jim Jones and Henry Bowers, center Joe Earnshaw, and backs John Garlin, Don Trevaskis, Ed Gallagher, and Joe Galente.

The frosh-sophs host Burlingame next week in their P.A.L. debut.

Ball Players Take Note! Send In Baseball Scores

Daly City baseball teams playing Sunday ball are encouraged to turn in box scores of their games to the Daly City Record.

Box scores should include an inning by inning score and first names of all local players. Tuesday is the deadline for all sandlot box scores at the Record.

Sunday Sermon Topic Announced

"Harvesting For Heaven" will be Pastor Max Zschiegner's theme Sunday at the Fall Mission Festival of Lutheran Church of Broadmoor.

The service will begin at 11 a. m. at Community Recreation Center, White street off Eighty-seventh street in Broadmoor Village. Some of the Sunday School children will sing a special number in this service. Mrs. Gerhard Bitter will direct the singing.

In the evening at 6:30 p. m. at the same hall a film,, entitled "Beyond Our Horizons" is to be shown. The picture, depicting the work of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod at home and abroad, will be commented on by the prominent San Francisco attorney, Gay Photenhauer.

The Mothers' Club of the church and Sunday school plans to serve light refreshments after the picture. It is scheduled early in the evening and a short program is planned, so bring the family!

INDIANS WALLOP SEQUOIA 25--0

Jeffs Completely Stymie Cherokees; Gallagher Shines In P. A. L. Inaugural

By Roy Hurlbert

Superior in all departments and in command throughout, Jefferson Union High's Indians launched their Peninsula Athletic League campaign with a one-sided 25-0 rout of Sequoia High last Friday night in jam-packed Sequoia Stadium.

Off what a capacity crowd of 5,000 persons witnessed, it is evident that Coach Glenn South's charges loom as a definite threat in the P. A. L. race.

To say that the Sequoians were stopped would be misleading. They never got started in the first place.

Sequoia's abundant Cherokees literally didn't know what hit 'em. They were outcharged and in hot water the full 60 minutes. And Jeff was really banging with a vengeance.

Yardstick Explains It

Statistics make the story easy.

Supercharged by a driving line, the Indians completely dominated play and scored in each of the four periods.

Jefferson hit pay dirt on a six-yard pass, a 22-yard sprint, a 61-yard breakaway run and an up-the-middle dash of 14 yards.

South's lads aggregated 319 yards on the ground and 42 via passing. The hapless Cherokees were held to 37 yards on runs and 20 aerial yards on their only two completed passes. The victors rolled up 12 first downs to 2 for their erratic hosts. In the air, Jeff's Bobby Gallagher, the game's offensive standout, found the range with six completions in 13 attempts. A much-improved Jeff pass defense yielded but two completions in 18 desperation tosses by assorted Sequoia passers.

Actually the only advantage Sequoia had all night was that of numbers. Sixty-three white-clad Cherokees suited-up for the encounter, a mighty long bench indeed. Jefferson's paltry total of only 31 players seemed to suffer by comparison.

But on the field, it was an altogether different tale.

Tribe Scores Early

Jefferson knew that Sequoia wasn't long for this world midway into the first quarter. After the ball changed hands, the Indians took over on their own 46. Nine running slants and three passes later they had their first tally. Gallagher fired to blond Harold Hazen, who was all by his lonesome in the left flat, for six yards and six points. Gallagher picked up his lone point after touchdown in four tries as he lofted a perfect strike to Max Kliem in the opposite corner of the end zone for 7-0.

Vic Baher's kickoff was brought back to the Cherokee 30. A running play netted a loss of a yard. On Sequoia's fifth and last play of the first period, a short pass for four made it third and three on their own 36. An offside penalty against Jeff on the next play gave the Sequoians one of their two first downs of the contest.

Drive Fizzles

Sequoia's woe then became utter distress, though, as Bob Lagomarsino ended the Cherokees' brief retalliation with a fumble recovery on the Sequoia 33.

With Gallagher and Ray Tschirgi dividing the burden, Jeff moved to touchdown territory in six plays. Kliem swept left end for the final 22 and Jeff looked like money in the bank, 13-0.

For the remainder of the first half, things were about even. All except the 13-0 score. Before the intermission, Sequoia had the hide for 15 more plays. Eight of those 15 downs were by passes. Jeff's line was that impregnable.

South's backs had 44 plays to 21 for Sequoia in the first 30 minutes.

Brief Sequoia Rally

Coach Al Terremere's surprised outfit looked like they meant business as the second half began. Sequoia marched 21 yards on three plays after taking Baher's boot on the Cherokee 37.

Their only good drive ended abruptly, however. Jeff's forwards tightened a few weak spots and Norman Cady, reserve quarterback, pounced on a second-down fumble on the Jeff 32.

Jefferson used up four downs and then Gallagher's beautiful punt bounced dead on the Sequoia one-yard marker. The Cherokees relocated after two plays for their subsequent punt on third down sailed to the Jeff 39 where Ray Espinoza was nailed immediately.

But the Jeffs went one better than this one.

Kliem Breaks Loose

Faking with perfection, Gallagher executed the most spectacular play of the night. Senior Max Kliem took a quick-opener handoff into the line and then cut to the left sideline for 61 yards and a sudden-death tally. Take away a couple of blocks in the line and Kliem's effort was trictly a fine piece of running. The try for point failed but Sequoia's back was broken, 19-0.

Next time Jeff had the pigskin they bolted 58 yards in eight carries for their fourth and final TD. Tschirgi went the last 14 up center. Gallagher's toss to Hazen for the extra digit missed and it was 25-0 with 10 minutes left to play.

Sequoia handled the ball on three more occasions and 12 downs, but they just didn't have the tools. South had his second stringers in there before the finish and even they looked good.

Coach Satisfied

South couldn't have been anything but pleased with the outcome. And he was exuberant.

"We played like a team that wanted to play. Our line charge was the key to our victory. And this was a real team victory. All the boys were fired-up and our attack was pretty smooth. Backfield timing was much improved over the Mountain View tilt and our pass defense was good.

"Sequoia? Well, I don't think they were as good an outfit as Mountain View. But then, we were much better this time than last week. When your line is charging like our boys did, it's pretty hard to stop 'em. That's just what Sequoia couldn't do.

"My team is coming along fine. The way they looked Friday, I think we can give any P.A.L. team a good battle. We've got a few rough points to iron out, but I think we'll be plenty tough from now on."

Koperak Hurt

South was openly concerned with the injury of right tackle Pete Koperak, early in the first period. The 223-pound junior came out of a pileup with a dislocated left shoulder. South indicates the injury may keep Kopcrak out indefinitely and that's not good. Pete suffered a similar shoulder injury last fall, but recovered in time to play at the close of the season. Vic Roggenbusch was inserted for Kopcrak and handled the job aptly.

South didn't single out any game standouts, because he thought all his Indians did well. Factually, Bobby Gallagher was the kingpin. The pint-sized senior lugged the leather 28 times for 120 yards, for a striking average of 4.2 per carry. His passing was cute when it counted and it did. And his faking was dandy.

Tschirgi and Kliem helped out with capable ball-packing. Tschirgi gained 74 yards on 18 carries, while Kliem, with his 61 yard shot a big chunk, traveled for 106 yards on seven advances.

McCool Stellar

Most observers agreed that Pat McCool's blocking was outstanding. A big fellow in Jeff's pony backfield, McCool was all over the field making tackles and throwing blocks at oncoming enemy linemen.

Other notables in Jeff's triumph of triumphs included huge Baher, Mansel Roland, Lagomarsino, and Jack Wilson . . . . . aw shucks, all the Jeffs did well. But these aforementioned boys were especially effective.

Jefferson gets a bye this week, but they don't seem to care. They're ready to go places. And it looks as though they have some place to go.

San Mateo Hosts Glendale; Bows Out To Stockton

In their own back yard for the first time, Coach Herb Hudson's San Mateo Junior College Bulldogs engage Glendale College's eleven tomorrow night in a non-conference game on the Burlingame High School field at 8 p.m.

San Mateo lost a heartbreaking 18-13 contest to Stockton J.C. Saturday night in Stockton after leading 13-12 in the final quarter.

Clearly the better team for three periods, the Bulldogs dropped their first game of the season because of a blocked kick.

Quarterback Ray Perasso's attempted punt from his own 14 was smothered by five Stockton linemen. One down after the recovery, Cub fullback Cecil Harp went over for the deciding tally.

San Mateo scored the second time it had the ball. Bill Botieff plunged over after Johnny Leal brought the Bulldogs up close with a pass to end Bud Wickert. Don Ouellette converted.

Minutes later the Leal-to-Wickert combination clicked again on a 36-yard TD pass play.

Stockton, undismayed, picked themselves off the floor and came back with three successive touchdowns.

The win gave Stockton a perfect slate in NCJCC competition. Previously they edged Sacramento 7-6, and trampled Placer, 34-0.

San Mateo bounced Marin, 33-13, in the Bulldogs' only other start, a practice game that didn't count.

Gilbert Bests Brother As Sartos Triumph, 9-3

It was brother versus brother and no love lost last Sunday when Sarto's defeated Five Mile House, 9-3.

Mission High's Gilbert Quinones of no-hit fame two weeks ago, had the better of the family argument as he bested his brother's team.

Gilbert allowed four hits, while his mates reached Mrs. Quinones' other son for eight base-knocks.

Sarto's play Newells - Allison Sunday in their Class A National League recreation loop opener in San Bruno.

Game time is 2 p.m.

Burlingame Golf Tourney Gets Underway Tonight

Burlingame's second annual Hole-in-One Golf Tournament gets underway tonight and will continue until Saturday, October 21, on the Millbrae Driving Range.

Opening night ceremonies will include exhibition driving and other golf shots by such prominent Peninsula linksmen as Harold Sampson, Art Bell, Bud Finger, Tom Fry and Erv Goulart.

Spot prizes will be awarded each evening of the nine-day tournament.

Verducci's S. F. Gaters Engage Whittier Eleven

Possibly the best football team in San Francisco State's history will take the field tonight against a Whittier College eleven on Cox Field at 8 p.m.

Coach Joe Verducci has given the Gaters a new look and the Purple and Gold will be out to avenge a 60-0 pasting by Whittier last season.

The Gaters enter tonight's non-conference game with two straight victories. They had little trouble blasting Cal Tech 35-7 and halting Southern Oregon 39-21 in their first Far West Conference start last week in Medford, Oregon.

The first game refuge in North America was established by the State of California at Lake Merritt, Oakland, in 1870.

California sportsmen spend more than $250,000,000 each year for hunting and fishing activities, estimates the Division of Fish and Game.

City College Rams Play Host To Unbeaten Lobos

Coach Grover Klemmer's City College of San Francisco Rams face one of the strongest contenders in the Northern California Junior College Conference Saturday night when the unbeaten Monterey J. C. Lobos invade Cox Field.

Kickoff time for the southern division contest on the San Francisco State campus gridiron is 8 p. m.

Menlo spoiled the Rams' conference bow last week with a 24-0 win over the hilltoppers from Phelan avenue.

Monterey will feature an attack built around Fullback Al Mathews, reputed the best runner in junior college NCJCC competition. The Lobos defeated Fresno J. C. 27-13; Visalia, 25-19 and Modesto, 20-14.

The T formation Rams swarmed all over Vallejo, 53-7, in their only other encounter.

Deer Hunters Receive Hunt Deadline Warning

California deer hunters are warned that the final hunting season ends in the Modoc-Lassen, north coastal, and Sierra areas at one-half hour after sunset Sunday, October 15, according to a bulletin issued by the Division of Fish and Game.

Successful nimrods are required to validate and return their deer tags.

In what most sportsmen and game managers termed an average hunting season, hunters by the first of the month had turned over a total of about 32,000 tags to the Division's office in San Francisco.

The tag return is lagging slightly behind this year's record high of 52,000 tags because of "generally poor weather and hunting conditions during both of the split seasons."

Final tag return figures will not be announced until the first of the year.

Who Runs America?

the Congress? the President?

OR YOU AND THE MAN NEXT DOOR?

RUNNING AMERICA is the joint job of 150,000,000 people. It's the biggest job in the world today—keeping it running for liberty and for freedom. And the whole world's watching to see whether Americans can do it!

IN MUCH OF THE WORLD today, the people have resigned from running their own countries. Others have been quick to step in—first with promises of "security"—and then with whips and guns—to run things their way. The evidence is on every front page in the world, every day.

FREEDOM COMES UNDER ATTACK. The reality of war has made every American think hard about the things he's willing to work and fight for—and freedom leads the list.

But that freedom has been attacked here recently—just as it has been attacked in other parts of the world. One of the most serious threats to individual freedom has been the threat of Government-dominated Compulsory Health Insurance, falsely presented as a new guarantee of health "security" for everybody.

THE PEOPLE WEIGH THE FACTS. In the American manner, the people studied the case for Socialized Medicine—and the case against it.

They found that Government domination of the people's medical affairs under Compulsory Health Insurance means lower standards of medical care, higher payroll taxes, loss of incentive, damage to research, penalties for the provident, rewards for the improvident.

They found that no country on earth can surpass America's leadership in medical care and progress. They found that able doctors, teachers, nurses and scientists—working in laboratories where Science, not Politics, is master—are blazing dramatic new trails to health for Americans—and for the world.

THE "GRASS ROOTS" SIGNALS CONGRESS. In every community in the Nation, people stood up to be counted on this important issue. Thousands of local women's clubs, civic groups, farm, business, religious, taxpayer, medical, educational and patriotic organizations spoke out—giving the great United States Congress its unmistakable Grass Roots signal from home!

And ever watchful, ever sensitive to an alert people, The Congress saw that signal, and heard the people speak out, loud and plain. That's democracy in action. That's the American way!

Today among the 10,000 great organizations on militant public record against "Compulsory Health Insurance" are:

General Federation of Women's Clubs
American Farm Bureau Federation
National Grange
Veterans of Foreign Wars
National Conference of Catholic Charities
American Protestant Hospital Association
American Legion
National Association of Small Business Men
United States Chamber of Commerce
National Association of Retail Grocers

• Doctors of this Nation are grateful that the people refused to be wooed by the fantastic promises of this un-American excursion into State Socialism. • Doctors of America are dedicated to serve their fellow citizens at home and their comrades in uniform, wherever service to this Nation may take them. • And the thing they stand ready to fight for—to sacrifice for—to die for—is not the alien way of life of Socialism, but the prideful security of a free and self-reliant people!

THE VOLUNTARY WAY IS THE AMERICAN WAY!

• Throughout the Nation, free men and women, working and planning together, are finding the American answer to every question of medical service, care and cost. Hundreds of Voluntary Health Insurance Plans are in healthy competition—sponsored by doctors, insurance companies, hospitals, fraternal organizations—by industry, agriculture and labor. • Today in America—70 million people are protected by Voluntary Health Insurance! • Throughout the Nation, families are insuring themselves against the major costs of illness—at reasonable, budget-basis prices. Voluntary Health Insurance takes the economic shock out of illness. Protect your family now. • For information, ask your doctor—or your insurance man.

An American's greatest heritage is the right to learn the facts—and to speak his mind. Maintained with honor and used with sincerity—that right will guarantee forever that Final Visit To Snug Harbor; What Makes A Good Boys Club Function In A Town?

By Dorothy A. Darling

I cannot say that I have a mystery to solve, at present. Seems as though the good folks are really getting in here and going to work on the boys club project. The next best thing I can think of to write about will be the fanticisms of rats in the upper story, or the dipsomaina in Bunny's bonnet. Of course that has nothing to do with the Daly City Boys Club — or has it?

So far I have been able to find out, the first organization of a boys club was known as The Federated Boys Club, formed in Boston, Massachusetts, May 19, 1906. The original leaders were about forty in number.

Today there are about 325 communities scattered about our nation with a membership of 330,000 boys. Also listed are 6,088 professional and volunteer workers. A total of some 35,000 members of the board of directors and auxiliary organizations in the various communities where boys clubs flourish.

All boys and girls have one thing in common. The age limit doesn't matter too much here. They all want to join a club or be a part of some fraternity type of activity. There is a common bond between a boy who joins a boys club and the other one who joins up with a gang of hoodlums. Not to be forgotten is the fact that Dad and Mom are right up there with as many clubs, lodges and meetings as their time and finances permit.

Juvenile Delinquents

How does a boy feel when he joins up with a gang of hoodlums, and why does he join them? A boy who joins a gang is usually the one who is in trouble at home or in the school. He may grow up with the idea that he is hated, unloved or unwanted. The teen-age years are a challenge and new situations to explore and with this new freedom, he will feel he has a right to his revenge against society. Thereby he will join a gang of boys who have had the same experiences, for sympathy and understanding and loyalty, strength in numbers gives him more courage.

So does the boy feel who joins a boys club. He feels that the boys he plays with at night, at the club, are like his own members of society. They have a deep and lasting sense of loyalty and respect for one another, their experiences are alike; are they not? Their own desirable companions mean as much to them as the other boy who turns to his undesirable friends for activity.

The inate need of individuals is the friendship of other members of our society. Complete isolation is considered proper punishment in our prisons today. Solitary confinement it is called.

Misdirected Energy

An unwholesome and sad spectacle of misdirected energy will exist if we fail this project. Then again it can be a program for the boys club that conclusively proves its worth by satisfying the basic desire of youth in the offer of new experience of response, recognition and security in group activities directed by adult example and ideals. You may be interested to know that last year 50 per cent of all crimes against property were committed by people under 25 years of age.

If you think that we cannot afford to support a boys club, take a gander at this. A city of 25,000 reports data that goes like this. Average hold-up involved property valued at $172. Average burglary offense was $116. Average larcenies $56. Auto theft offenses $835. Daly City has no 25,000 population, but she sure is growing up pretty fast.

I have been told in no uncertain words that Daly City is a poor town, that we cannot support a boys club. I don't believe that!

If every citizen would only donate 25 cents a year, the boys club would remain in operation. In view of the fact that these boys are willing also to get out and work themselves to keep their club in operation, that is little enough to invest in youth.

Money Troubles

I realize that with all agencies asking for money that it is not easy for people to give and give. We have to stop some place. But the fact remains, there is no high paid officials at the head of any of this money. It is for the CLUB only, and no percentage is sent out of town or a national headquarters. Nor do we get any help from any outside agency.

Personally I am just as poor as the next guy — but I can afford in a year's time a price of a couple packages of cigarettes. The difference of a 5-dollar hat or purse and even a pair of nylon hose.

There is something in the good book about the man who cast bread upon the waters. About those who pay allegiance to a supreme being. About those who give thanks for their good health and fortune by helping those who are deserving of help and who are so willing to help themselves.

Story Telling

There is a story about a man who always comes to my mind when I think about something like this.

The man lived in a small town. He was a business man. He overcharged everyone he could. He was personally a mean and cussed individual. Most people hated him. Yet in every business venture he went into he made money, wads of it. When he finally died he only left a small amount of money. Everyone was very much surprised. Finally it all came out. As this man made money he gave much of it away. Secretly, perhaps, because he felt the softness in his heart was not for the public to acclaim, but then maybe he had a secret pact with God — who can say.

Confucius tought: "Life travels upward in spirals. He who takes pains to search the shadows of the past below us, then, can better judge the tiny arc up which he climbs, more surely guess the dim curves of the future above him."

Good luck to the boys club and may the good Lord bless you.

CCPT Parliamentary Classes To Meet Next Wednesday

A third in a series of parliamentary procedure classes of the Seventeenth District California Congress of Parents and Teachers will be held next Wednesday morning at the Lawrence School in San Mateo.

Meeting time is 9:30 a.m. to 11:30.

All CCPT chairmen who wish practical pointers on parliamentary techniques are urged to attend. Copies of unit by-laws should be brought for study and reference, Mrs. Arne Hersom, publicity chairman, advises.

First weekly parliamentary procedure class met Wednesday at the Lawrence school. Thirty-one county P.T.A. representatives heard Mrs. George Beanston of San Francisco conduct the realistic demonstrations.

Mrs. J. M. Foley of San Mateo, district parliamentarian who arranged the course, and Mrs. G. J. Sirex of San Carlos, president, report lively interest in the requisite leadership qualities as presented by Mrs. Beanston.

Executive board members of the Seventeenth District and all local association presidents joined in sectional meetings Monday at various high schools.

Coastside P.T.A. people gathered at Half Moon Bay High while in northern San Mateo county and Tri-City representatives met at Burlingame High school, and southern section executives held their confab at Sequoia High school.

Auxiliary Members Attend Meeting

Eight members of Daly City's Old Glory Auxiliary 2044, V.F.W., attended a regular meeting of the San Mateo - Santa Clara county councils of Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliaries Wednesday night in Palo Alto.

After the meeting, an instructive talk was given in regards to disaster communications in case of national emergency.

Old Glory members attending were Ethel Dorn, Marie Gehrig, Bonnie Ellenwood, Ruth Brules, Clara Poket, Lorraine Schneider, Eleanor Cochran and Marjorie Johnson.

Tuesday evening Mesdames Dorn, Ellenwood, Gehrig, Poket and Johnson sat in on a meeting of the Junipero Serra Auxiliary in South San Francisco.

Donald Blair To Speak At Rally

Donald Blair, high school principal of Seattle, Washington, will be the guest speaker at the Golden Gate Zone Rally to be held in the Grace Church of the Nazarene Friday evening, October 13.

The subject which Mr. Blair has chosen to speak on is "Christian Youth in the High School." His talk will be of interest to parents as well as to young people. The public is invited to attend.

The rally, starting at 7:30 p.m., will be attended by members and friends from the seven Nazarene churches which comprise the Golden Gate Zone. Points will be given to the church having the highest representation. The churches that will be meeting in friendly competition will be: San Francisco First, San Francisco Calvary, San Francisco Sunset, Brisbane, San Bruno, Palo Alto and Daly City.

Special music will be furnished by the Daly City church choir. At the close of the service refreshments will be served in the social hall.

Girl Scouts Enjoy Waffle Breakfast Tuesday

Girl Scout Troop No. 12, under the leadership of Mrs. Hilda Heagney, met at 101 Parkview Tuesday for their regular meeting following which they prepared and enjoyed a delightful breakfast consisting of fruit juice, waffles with bacon and hot chocolate.

Assisting Mrs. Heagney was Mrs. James Hickey, former co-leader of Troop No. 22. Mrs. Hickey will shortly take over the leadership of Troop 12 in order to allow Mrs. Heagney to devote more time to her many other duties in Girl Scouting. Mrs. James Hinds, of 186 E. Vista avenue, will serve as the new co-leader for the group.

Donna Hiett, who is shortly moving to Hayward, was presented with a farewell token of a friendship pin by the girls and also received her second class badge.

Scouts participating in the breakfast included the following: Donna Hiett, Beverly Sunderman, Mary Voelker, Floretta Johnson, Phyllis Baldwin, Martha Warren, Mary Fulwider, Marjorie Smith, Joan Mendel, Lilianne Boynton, Donna O'Dell, Laverne Gardner and Patricia Hickey. The scouts also cordially invited James Hickey to share their breakfast with them and he accepted with pleasure.

Colma Whist Game Set For October 20

Whist fans will have a chance to play their favorite game in Colma October 20, 8 p.m., at Holy Angels church parish, 107 San Pedro road.

Sponsored by the Holy Names Society of Rockaway Beach, the whist is being held to raise funds for the men's society.

Money from the party will be used to support the children's Christmas party and to purchase a banner and badges for members of the society.

Les Thompson is chairman for the affair.

Colma PTA Membership Drive Now Underway

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Citizen:

You are needed in the P.T.A. WHY?

Because — your ideas, your zest, your strength, your support, and your cooperation is important in parent-teacher work. Children's needs won't wait.

Help raise the standards of mental, emotional, and spiritual health.

The problems of childhood are acute in this period of world crises and emergency.

Yes, the P.T.A. needs you.

Our president with the committee has outlined a fine program for the year. Meetings are to be held at Colma Community Center, R. S. Thornton School, Garden Village School, and Jefferson Elementary School.

Read your monthly edition of the Colma P.T.A. Newsette for details. This Newsette is given to your child at school for your information one week before our regular general meeting.

Colma Parent-Teacher Association urges you to renew your membership this month and also welcomes new members. If you wish to become an active member in our unit, please contact one of the following: Mrs. A. Tuvo, corresponding secretary, 142 Werner avenue, Daly City, PL 5-1035; Mrs. H. Kern, room representative chairman, phone PL 5-2126; Mrs. J. Dennis Jr., program chairman, phone PL 5-0809; Mrs. A. Mori, hospitality chairman, phone PL 5-1235.

Trusting you received your membership envelope through your child, or through our mailing list, I am yours truly,

Mrs. Wm. Hutchings,
Membership Chairman
PL 5-1590

Ladies Night Dinner Scheduled

Community Presbyterian Church of Colma will present a Ladies' Night dinner at Estrada's Cafe, 7440 Mission street, Thursday, October 19, at 8 p.m.

Accommodations will be made for more than 200 with a charge for each plate.

Proceeds of the affair will go into the church's building fund which was pledged by the Men's Fellowship.

The general public is invited to enjoy the dinner and thereby contribute to the church's building program.

Youth Work Topic At Lutheran Church

Next Sunday at Bethel Lutheran church, Alemany boulevard and Huron avenue, the Rev. Herbert P. Schroeder will continue the series of sermons pertaining particularly to the youth.

The subject of the sermon for the service at 10:45 a.m. will be "A Noble Friendship."

Sunday school and Adult Bible class will be conducted at 9:30 a.m.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold their regular luncheon next Wednesday in the parish house. Further plans are being made for the Fall Festival, to be held in November.

Church To Give Home Cooked Meal

Want to eat a real home cooked meal?

Well then, take advantage of the Ladies Aid Society of the Grace Presbyterian church dinner to be served up at 6 o'clock this Saturday evening.

The dinner will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swan, 1174 Brunswick street.

Anyone wishing a reservation is asked to call JUniper 4-9330.

Proceeds from the dinner will be used by the women to purchase kitchen equipment for the new church kitchen.

NEW MODEL WESTLAKE HOME TO OPEN

A newly completed "Model Home" featuring the French influence both in its architectural detail and interior decoration, will be open for public inspection this Saturday, October 14, at Westlake, the Henry Doelger Town and Country Community that is growing as if by magic. The Westlake "Belle Maison" is a typical exampie of the many excellent architectural features, spacious rooms and convenient arrangements that characterize all the homes in this $125 million Doelger planned community.

Mrs. Holt Given Surprise Party

Surprise was the keynote of a birthday party given Mrs. James Holt, 114 Garden lane, by a number of friends last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Holt, who had been away from home for the day, opened the front door to find a birthday supper on the table and a good many friends singing "Happy Birthday."

Following the buffet supper, canasta was played and a good time was had by all, especially Mrs. Holt.

Friends who made the surprise birthday party possible were Mr. and Mrs.: Harry O'Strander, Joseph Graham, Eugene Miller, Robert Whitting, Raymond Cooper and William Shay. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stendell Jr. from Menlo Park and Mrs. Isabelle Gooding from San Diego.

Sheridan PTA Meet Topic Announced

In keeping with Sheridan's P-TA theme for the year, "These Are Our Children," this month's program will include a talk by Mrs. Eleanor Topalian, from the Marina Adult School on "The Needs of Our Children's Modern Mother" at the Sheridan P-TA meeting to be held Tuesday, October 17, at 1 p.m. in Room 17 at the school.

A "Welcome Hour" has been planned at 12:15 p.m. preceeding the meeting. All new parents of the school and all new members of the P-TA are cordially invited to attend. A dessert luncheon will be served. Come and get acquainted with the faculty and the P-TA. Small children will be cared for during the meeting.

Music on the program will be vocal solos by members of Second District CCPT "mothersingers," accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Russell, who is music chairman for Sheridan P-TA.

YOUR DALY CITY GARDEN CLUB NEWS

By ELSIE M. GARRISON

The Garden Club, not to be outdone by the rash of fashion shows, which have been so prevalent this season, conducted their own affair early this week, when it staged its "Mad Hatter Night."

Glorious creations of every shade and hue, were exhibited to the amusement and amazement of all present. All the hats presented were, of course, original concoctions, made entirely with home-grown greens and flowers, with accessories of pertinent value to gardeners. And indeed this was a collection to out-dash Lily Dache' any old day of the week.

Winning the first prize, was the dramatic entry of Mrs. H. De Leon, which consisted of a wire-bird cage, complete with bird, the base of which was clustered with purple bougainvilla, dahlias and Canterbury bells, and fetchingly worn tide under the chin with a purple satin bow.

Observing the deer season, Mrs. H. Miguel centered a ceramic deer on an inverted wicker basket, surrounded it with the natural habitat of tree cuttings and flowers and added a black veil. Matisse' or Picasso could no doubt find some symbolism in the attached red wire braids, but hope my husband does not encounter any red-heads on his hunting expeditions—and that's the only way I could figure it out!! Suffice to say, it was awarded a well-earned second prize.

Feature

One of the unique features of this show, was that the men also took part, and the consolation prize was given to Mr. Streeter, who had created a small sombrero, and trimmed the up-turned brim all around the edge with fuchsia balls in the traditional fashion. Only lacking a ukelele, Mr. Yahn sported a headgear in native fashion, made out of large leaves, and adorned with angel trumpets flowers. A gaudy shirt, in bright Hawaiian motif, complimented his attire. "The Spirit of Stanford" which was modeled by Mr. McKee, was a truly beautiful wreath of bright red and white dahlias, interspersed with greens. A most attractive and colorful hat, but what? No football tickets? Mr. Iverson displayed a daring model, whipped up from a pie plate and lillies-of-the-valley, with a meringue of lemon verbena. It very nearly got served with the refreshments, however.

New Trend

Introducing a new trend, Mrs. C. Hansen, wore a number, calculated to solve the problem of what to do with old lamp shades, and had festooned one with vines and accented with red fuchsias, finishing it up with a chic plaid bow.

Mrs. Kramer, a very attractive figure, was garbed in a dressmaker suit in a soft peach color, that brought out the beauty and delicacy of the chapeaux she wore. Ingeniously contrived from a large Aurelia leaf, it was encircled with begonia blooms of the same color as her suit. Mr. Kramer, who took several pictures (for the Millinery Journal, no doubt), seemed to be hatless, although he may have given up in the face of such competition.

Many provocative models were admired in pill-box, bonnet, half hat and sailor styles, each with its extrinsic detail, and among those whose hats were outstanding, were Mesdames Stewart, Baden Mollette, Garrison, Iverson, Christian, Yahn, Moore and Bunkley. Mrs. D. Hunter had the distinction of the only entry with a resale value, specifically a pot of violas, and ivy, which was set in a chicken-wire hat form, and set off with ruffled petunias in front. It was auctioned off later in the evening during the "Plant Auction," which followed the highly successful and hilarious Hat Revue.

AUCTION

Competently taking over the auctioneer's block was Shirl Mollette, who was also host of the evening, and think he must have had previous experience the way he handled it. That he is treasurer of the Club may just be coincidence, but a nice little sum was made. Though it must be said that many of the plants auctioned off, which included fuchsias, coleous, hydrangea, tuberous begonia, ivy and flowering quince to name a few, really received only token price to their market value, the plants were donated by the membership and the spirited competition was just a lot of fun.

The schedule of events of the California Garden Clubs Inc. of which the D. C. G. Club is an affiliate, was acknowledged and will in future be placed on a bulletin board, so that all members who wish to can take advantage of the social and instructive events sponsored in and near here.

President Aimee Bunkley thanked Mrs. Yahn for the donation of the first prize, which was a ceramic figurine from her own kiln. Appreciation was loud and long for the beautiful cake which was sent by absentee member, Mrs. F. E. Hawes, and the festive board spread by Mrs. Mollette was something to behold. It was agreed that this was one of the best meetings held, but each one seems that way.

I.O.U.

The one jarring note was the presence of my I.O.U. amidst the pile of "green stuff," which is dear to the heart of our treasurer. I kind of thought that would give me an extra guarantee in case my plants should die or turn out to be the wrong color (such as the recently publicized case of the orchids), but was informed that for "security reasons" I would have 24 hours grace, which makes me feel my credit is pretty good. Most everyone wants your eye-teeth down these days, with six per cent interest. Mr. Mollette will not add "carrying charges" as he only has to carry the plants a short distance to my house, and the "interest" is quite obviously reciprocal.

VILLAGE NOTES

BROADMOOR, GARDEN VILLAGE, COLMA
by
Mrs. Mark Swoverland
PLaza 5-4158

Hi there, how's everything today. The stork has been quite busy this week bringing bundles of joy to Broadmoor.

87th Street

First to welcome a newcomer was Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Kerger. The new arrival was Russell E. Kerger, born October 4 at St. Joseph's hospital. He weighed in at 7 pounds 5 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spry have been quite busy with entertaining their friends from out of town. Visiting them is Mrs. Sterling Baltis and daughter Joyce from Seattle, and Mrs. A. J. Richards of Eugene, Oregon.

Bradley Street

The stork arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Elliott bringing Joseph Elliott III, who arrived October 5 at the UC Hospital and weighed 7 pounds 3 ounces.

Sweetwood Drive

The James M. Rosenbledts also welcomed a new baby, Nancy Sue, born September 15 at the Children's Hospital. Nancy weighed 8 pounds 3 ounces.

Thornhill

Mrs. Janice Putnam is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nellie Reed, in Toledo, Ohio, on an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Boyd have guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. Harner and Sam Harner from Napa, California.

Maddux Drive

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sower and children, Dorothy and Terry, visited the Jack Baumgarteners this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin of Winchester, Virginia, were recent visitors to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Trevor Jones. Mrs. Martin is reporting for duty as a nurse in Oak Knoll.

Wildwood

The neighborhood canasta party was held at the home of Mrs. Irene Parks. Attending were Mesdames: Pearl Harris, Ampara Araejula, Mary Contreras, Fleta Lagoria.

Midway

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dennis and children, Alex and Dennis, and Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Matson and children, Karen and Marilyn, and Mrs. Mabel Downey went to a weiner roast Monday night at the beach. A fine time was had by all.

Here and There

William Proctor of Maddux is leaving for the Navy. The neighbors gave a surprise farewell party at his home last Friday night. Attending were his wife Jean, Mr. and Mrs.: Bud Russell, Les Williams, Richard Crest and Richard Hart.

The Red Cross is sponsoring a first aid course at the Colma Community center on Tuesday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock. Dean Woods of the Daly City police department is the teacher. Twenty-three have signed up for the course which will cover nine weeks. Several have signed up for the home nursing course, but as yet it hasn't been started.

The George Irvine's celebrated their eighth anniversary with a family dinner last week.

Don't forget the Bazaar November 3 and 4 at the Broadmoor Community church.

Till next week . . . .

California sportsmen spend 50 times as much money in hunting and fishing as they contribute to the Fish and Game Commission to maintain the supply of game and fish, reports the Wildlife Conservation Board.

Happy Birthdays!

Harry, the "happy baker," wishes the following local residents the best of everything on their coming birthdays:

October 15: Emma Ordonz, 115 San Pedro road; Madeline S. Hayes, 50 Candlestick road.

October 16: Bill Heinzle, 60 Mateo avenue.

October 16: Bill Heinzle, 60 Mateo avenue.

Traveler To Be Guest Speaker At SMJC

World-traveler Frank Kugelberg will be guest speaker of Community Hall adult center at San Mateo Junior College auditorium Monday evening.

Kugelberg will lecture on and show color movies of "Tahiti, the Rainbow Isle."

A week later he will return to show his films of the Treasure Island Exposition of 1940.

Both programs start at 7:30 p.m. and the public is invited to attend. There is no admission charge.

Eagles Auxiliary To Hold Whist October 17

Everyone is invited to attend a combination luncheon and card party October 17, Mrs. Dora Black, Eagles Auxiliary whist chairman, said today.

The whist is to be held at the Colma Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848 FOE hall at 3346 San Jose avenue. It will follow the luncheon which is to begin promptly at 12:30 p.m.

When most of Oklahoma was set aside as an Indian Territory in 1834, white settlers were barred.

Fathers Night To Highlight Meeting Of Woodrow Wilson P. T. A. Tuesday

Members of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. executive board met at the home of Mrs. Henry Adami on Tuesday, October 3.

Hostess for the occasion was Mrs. John Sorenson, who served a delightful dessert luncheon before the business meeting.

Mrs. Ralph Wakehouse, sewing chairman, reported a very successful and productive meeting of a group which met at her home on Friday, September 29. Many lovely table cloths, aprons and other items were made for sale at a bazaar to be held later in the year. Assisting Mrs. Wakehouse, were the following members: Mrs. J. Morman, Mrs. William Berardy, Mrs. Joseph Ausano, and Mrs. Henry Adami.

The next regular meeting of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. will be held on Tuesday, October 17, at 7:30 p.m. and it is particularly to be noted that this is an evening session in order that fathers may attend. Entertainment will feature a class demonstration by Miss Strauch's fourth grade class. James Snell will be on hand to answer any and all questions by parents pertaining to P.T.A.

On the lighter side, there will be a "hats by father contest" with mother serving as model for the creations, which should prove fun for all. To tickle dad's palate, refreshments will be served, including home made apple pie, if further inducement is needed to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Beanston's parliamentary procedure class began its sessions on October 4 and will continue for a period of seven weeks. Classes meet at Lawrence School in San Mateo at 9:30 a.m. Further information may be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Henry Adami, PLaza 5-6697.

A sectional district meeting for officers of Woodrow Wilson will be held at Jefferson High School on Monday, October 9, at 9:30 a.m.

Legion Auxiliary To Meet October 20

District 26, American Legion Auxiliary, will hold a meeting Friday, October 20, at the Daly City Legion Hall, 474 San Diego avenue, starting at 8 p.m.

Five days later, on October 25, the Auxiliary will stage a past-president party with Mrs. Olga Bordsen in charge at the same locale.

Another DC Man Donates Pint Of Blood

Latest Daly City man to give blood to the San Mateo blood bank is Frank Smollen, 176 Bruno.

This was the first donation for Smollen, although he plans to give many more pints in the months ahead.

Everyone who is able to give blood is urged to do so, as it will be used in part to assist the fighting men in Korea.

WESTLAKE WHIRL

by Marian Christians PLaza 5-0946

Westlake children are going to have their own Hallowe'en parade and festivities this year, the Westlake Property Owners Association announced this week.

At a special meeting Tuesday night, women of the community prepared the preliminary plans for a parade which will get underway Hallowe'en night (October 31) at the corner of Westlawn and Hillcrest.

All kids, and especially those between 10 and 14, are invited to take part in the festivities.

Following the parade, which will get underway at 7:30 p.m., the Association will distribute prizes and gifts from a huge tent to be erected in the Westlake area.

There will be prizes for the best costumes as well as for the winners in various contests.

All those who wish to take part in the festivities, and especially to aid with the parade, are asked to contact Mrs. Don Votaw, 129 Westdale, at PLaza 5-5796.

Watch the Record next week for further news of the big Hallowe'en celebration.

Other residents have reasons to celebrate this week, as Henry Doelger and the Association have drawn up final plans for permanent bus shelters at both the east and west gates.

A request for the shelters was made at the last regular meeting of the Association. Acting promptly, the organization has agreed to put up well-designed redwood and cement shelters, Harry Bosberry, Association official, said today.

Work is expected to begin on the shelters within the next week.

Another addition to Westlake was reported this week. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Thomas, 59 Westdale, are the proud parents today of a son, Roger, born September 14. Roger is the second addition to the family, bowing in behind his sister Patricia.

Plans for a teen-age girls club are now underway in Westlake. It is hoped that enough girls between the ages of 15 and 19 years will show interest in forming such an organization.

Anyone interested is asked to contact Mrs. George Gibson, 5 Cliffside drive, at PL 5-4048.

At some later date it is expected a similar club will be organized for the older boys in the community.

And for the younger set, several women are trying to organize Girl Scout and Brownie troops in Westlake. However, they need your assistance.

If you, or a friend, is interested in Girl Scout work please contact Mrs. Meyers at PLaza 5-1667.

Remember, all other residents interested in forming clubs, or organizations can use this column for their announcements. Don't hesitate to call either Mrs. Christians or the Daly City Record, PLaza 5-4321.

Court St. Mary, CDA To Fete State Officer

Preparations are being made for a formal reception in honor of Mrs. Milton C. Weckerle, state secretary of the Catholic Daughters of America and a past grand regent of Court St. Mary No. 1155, Daly City on October 19 at 8:30 p.m. in the Blue Room of Masonic hall, 17 Hillcrest drive, Daly City. All Catholic Daughters are extended a cordial welcome.

Entertainment is being planned under the supervision of Mrs. Fred J. Wettstein, general chairman of the evening.

BAYSHORE VISITACION VALLEY

By Bernice Hendryx JUniper 4-6449

Hallowe'en is almost upon us, and with it this year, comes the Carnival. The Bayshore PTA is tossing a carnival for kids and grown-ups alike, complete with concessions, games, and hot dogs. Start saving your pennies for the big event. It will be at the Bayshore School auditorium Tuesday evening, October 31.

Thinking about this carnival brings something pleasant to mind. With all the differences in Bayshore, we can truly pat ourselves on the back as a community for the way that everyone has cooperated on Hallowe'en to see to it that the youngsters have a good time with a minimum of damage. I have lived in other communities where the approach of October 31 brought with it a sense of foreboding. We pick up the papers and read of some of the tricks that are pulled, and though in most cases the damages are small, they are not small to the person the property belongs to. Bayshore, on the other hand, has encouraged trick-or-treat with the small fry to the point where they can keep themselves occupied for several hours. Each year, more people here have made it a point to stay home and donate a piece of candy, a cookie, or a bit of fruit to the hordes that descend upon them.

Plea for Kids

Many of the childless residents were prone to feel that it was an unnecessary nuisance not so long ago, and, of course, there are still some who do not wish to be bothered. The only argument that can be presented is a look at the small amount of real damage that has been done hereabouts. If we close up shop and take in a show, or turn the lights out and not answer the door, the youngsters soon tire of collecting loot and turn their mind to other forms of celebrating this night that belongs to them.

What there is about this evening that sets it apart from all others is found in the minds of little ones the country over. It is intangible, but it is something to be reckoned with. All I can say is, throw away a quarter on a bag of candy, some gum, a bit of popcorn or what have you, and help us bring the youngsters up to think of Hallowe'en as costumes and tummy aches from too many sweets, rather than soap and paint and other types of juvenile destruction. One of these days, it may be your property they work on.

Vistor

Mrs. Isaiah, sister of Mary Ellen Dirks, showed up with her husband for a five-day visit. Mr. Isaiah is a real life cowboy from Canab, Utah. The Dirks sold them completely on San Francisco during their stay. The sighi-seeing agenda included a trip to the fun house at the beach, and we understand that it was really a sight to behold. Wonder if Mr. Isaiah tried our brand of horses. The merry-go-round, that is.

The Mr. & Mrs. Club is planning another pot-luck dinner for the evening of October 21. Have fun fellas.

The Bazaar, given by the ladies Fire Auxiliary last Friday, was reported a smashing success. Luncheon was served to some fifty people, consisting of tamale pie or tuna and noodles, with tossed green salad and dessert. Viola Beckel won the hand-made shawl that was raffled.

Jay, young daughter of Marg Sowle, had an accident last Xmas. She fell and pushed a front tooth up into her gum. The dentist told them that if it were left alone, it would grow again. Sure enough it did, but it absessed in the process, so last week it had to come out. Marg reports that she was a good little soldier. Gas and all were given. You are pretty young, Jay, to be able to discuss your operation.

PTA Meeting

There will be a general meeting of the Bayshore PTA this Friday at 2 p.m. A children's program will be presented, so turn out mothers, and watch the kids perform.

We understand that the quota set for the district by the Community Chest was attained with some to spare. The Bayshore PTA includes a thank-you note to all of the volunteers who gave their time to help with this drive.

The Ford family gave a surprise party last Friday nite for their Aunt Sue. There were three cakes, and guests from Hayward were among those persent.

The morning service at the Baptist church will have as its theme: "God's Yes-men." The evening service subject will be: "Parting Ways." Sunday is Layman Sunday at the church, and Sunday evening is Young People's nite. A Singspiration after evening services for all of you who like to sing.

Pot-luck Supper

A yearly pot-luck was given last Friday evening by the Fire Auxiliary for all of the volunteer firemen who go into the service during this year. Fred Doyle is already in the Navy, but he hopes to remain stationed at Treasure Island until the end of November, in order to greet a new member of his family, due in November. Al Santiago is due to go in the tenth of next month. It was hoped that Al would be here for the shindig, but unfortunately, he was delayed up north and missed the affair. Two of the Scatena boys and one of the Amos boys provided music during dinner, then made with their accordions for dancing later in the evening.

Mrs. Erceg gave a get-acquainted luncheon last Friday, with some eight ladies present. Congratulations, Mrs. Erceg. The good neighbor policy is badly needed in Bayshore, and in other places.

John H. Wentworth, 74-year-old retired printer of 184 Rio Verde street, passed away early Wednesday morning. Mr. Wentworth has had a serious heart condition for some time. He has been a resident of Bayshore for some 25 years, and is survived by his wife Maude and son Bud, who has a temporary deferment from service to be at home with his mother.

Court St. Mary Ladies To Assist At Bazaar

Members from Court St. Mary, CDA, will assist the Carnival of Nations in the OLPH bazaar by operating the French booth where delicious home cooked foods will be served under the chairmanship of Mrs. Hans O. Schroeder.

Some of the committee members assisting will be Mrs. R. J. Ennis, Mrs. Ferdinand Michelsen, Mrs. Wm. Core, Mrs. Agnes Dennings, Mrs. Arthur Heyden, Mrs. Paul Green, Mrs. G. W. Ryan, Mrs. E. A. Malloy, Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, Mrs. R. H. Miller and Mrs. M. J. Clark.

DALY CITY—COLMA

Guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Daly City Lions Club this week was Elman Rose, director of recreation.

Rose addressed the Lions on the past, present and future plans of the recreation department. He pointed out the steady growth in recreational facilities, and called on the Lions to do their utmost to support a program which benefits every member of the community.

The recreation director was introduced by James Snell, superintendent of the Jefferson elementary school district.

Thieves Strike Twice -- Same Place

The Merit Furniture Company, 1899 Junipero Serra boulevard, today will freely admit that not only lightning, but thieves often strike the same place twice.

Burglars broke into the store Saturday or Sunday night and stole $50 from the desk in Arthur Godman's office. He is manager of the company.

But it was an old story to Godman. July 4 thieves entered the building through a skylight on the roof. The same method of entry was used last week end.

Once in the building, the thieves went directly to Godman's office and removed the $50. In the earlier burglary they got $150 and several radios.

When they had finished cleaning out the desk, the unidentified burglars shoved a table under the skylight, put a chair on the table and left via the roof. The same method of escape was used in the earlier theft.

Local Police Officer To Attend Academy

Believing only a trained policeman is a good policeman, the Daly City Police department this month will send another one of its men to school.

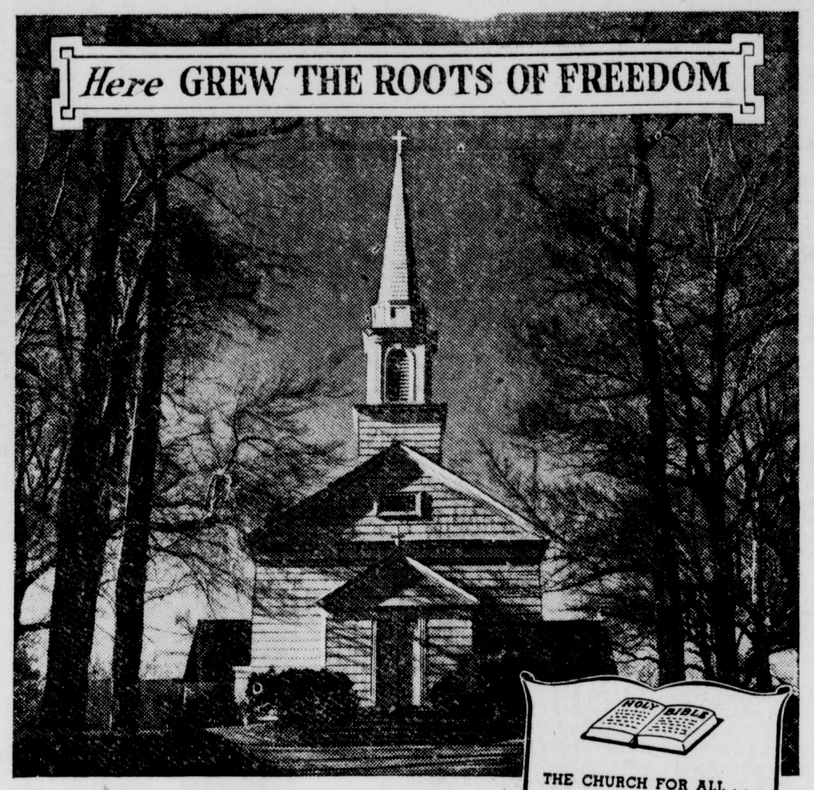
John Van Otten, who joined the force in July, will enter the San Francisco Police Academy October 16 for extensive training in the latest police methods.

During his month at the Academy, Van Otten will get lessons on everything from courtesy to shooting straight with various types of weapons.

This is part of a training program that every member of the Daly City Police Department takes part in at one time or another during his career, Police Chief W. W. Sunderland stated today.

In addition to the San Francisco Academy, other Daly City policemen have attended the FBI school and various San Mateo county training courses.

Here GREW THE ROOTS OF FREEDOM



The right to worship where and as we choose is only one phase of the liberty we Americans prize, and for this and all of our other freedoms we owe a debt to Christianity.

Religious convictions, woven into our Constitution, gave strength to our pioneers. Reliance upon God, and fidelity to the Church, made our forefathers brave, patient and determined. In such faith was America born.

Through the Church and by authority of the Bible, Christianity says that all human beings have worth—that each one has a place—that man's first responsibility is to his Creator.

The Church is the symbol of this belief—the steadfast instrument through which it is worked out. Therefore the Church deserves our support. It stands for decency and order. It and the Church school are the safest places for our children.

Choose your Church—give it part of your time and means—participate in some of its activities—and you will find life taking on a new and richer meaning.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

$4 Million Allotted For Bayshore Work

Widening of the Bayshore highway between South San Francisco and the north county line was assured today with the announcement that the state has appropriated $4,000,000 for the job during 1951-52.

Only fill and grading are covered in this allocation, with paving and structures left to the future, Charles H. Purcell, public works director, announced.

Funds provide for $3,600,000 for preparing the grade and 343,000 for right of way acquisition.

The allocation which provides for improvements in 56 of the 58 state counties.

There was no indication in the budget announcement of when work would start o nthe Bayshore project.

S. F. To Be World Aviation Center

San Francisco next week will be the world's aviation center when the 1950 general meeting of the International Air Transport Association convenes October 16-24.

IATA is the parliament of the world's airlines. U.S. Flag Lines who are members of the Association will act jointly as hosts to the heads of more than 50 other international airlines from about 45 nations. Warren Lee Pierson, chairman of the board of Trans World Airline, will take office as president at the opening session here, succeeding Dr. Albert Plesman of KLM Royal Dutch Airlines. Pierson was elected at the 1949 conference held in The Hague.

The San Francisco conference will be the first general assembly of world airlines held in the United States.

The first papermill in California, established by Samuel Taylor in 1856, was on Papermill (Lagunitas) Creek, in Marin county.

"So Young, So Bad" At DC Theatre This Week End

The thing about "So Young, So Bad" is that it has a heart.

This United Artists film, which starts Sunday at the Daly City Theatre, tells the story of a psychiatrist's efforts to help the inmates of a corrective home for girls, his fight against the abuses and cruelty of narrow-minded administrators and his final triumph in the dismissal of the old regime and the adoption of an understanding, constructive attitude toward the delinquent girls.

The distinguished stage and screen actor, Paul Henreid, stars in the role of the psychiatrist, giving the characterization all the warmth and sensitivity it deserves. Featured with him is Catherine McLeod as a sympathetic social worker whose feelings for the psychiatrist are both professional and personal. Cecil Clovelly and Grace Coppin play the vicious Home administrators.

Four brilliant young actresses—Anne Francis, Anne Jackson, Rosita Moreno and Enid Pulver—make their screen debuts in the film as young girls who have "gone bad."

Produced by Edward J. and Harry Lee Danziger, "So Young, So Bad" was filmed entirely in the New York metropolitan area. Bernard Vorhous directed from a screenplay by himself and Jean Rouverol.

As dramatic and alive as the latest headlines, "So Young, So Bad" is an important motion picture which should not be missed.

The 450-Sutter Building in San Francisco is 28 stories high.

Lutheran Church Names Sunday's Guest Speaker

Guest speaker at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior this Sunday will be Robert Wayne, curate of Ebenezer Lutheran church.

Divine worship will begin at 11 a.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend, and to hear Wayne speak.

The San Francisco Museum of Art is housed in the Veterans Memorial building at the Civic Center.

This Is Peak Accident Season

California is approaching the peak season for traffic accidents, the Highway Patrol warned motorists and pedestrians today.

Night driving and walking hazards are particularly prevalent in October, the Patrol stated, pointing out that the longer hours of darkness are a contributing factor in the greater number of traffic deaths and accidents usually experienced this time of year. Blackest record for the year in 1949 was claimed by October, with 322 traffic fatalities, it was said.

For motorists the first rule for safe night driving is to slow down, according to the Patrol, which stated:

"Remember, you can't possibly see as well or as much after dark, no matter how efficient your headlights."

Pedestrians were urged to be extra careful, especially while walking on rural highways. They were reminded to walk well off the road, facing traffic, and to wear light-colored clothing or carry a light-colored object.

1000 Car Garage Approved For S. F.

The San Francisco Parking Authority this week designated St. Mary's Square as the city's No. 1 site for a 1000-car capacity underground garage.

Next step in the program is adoption of a resolution sent to the Board of Supervisors for appropriation of $525,000 for the purchase of private property adjoining the Square, to provide an additional entry from Kearny street, as well as from California and Pine streets. If approved by the Board, it is expected the money will be made available from the 1947 bond issue of $5,000,000 approved for off-street parking facilities.

Once assured of funds, the Authority will advertise for bids for construction and operation of the facility. The garage would be built with private capital but title to the improvements would be vested in the city and the city would receive revenue from rents under a 50-year lease to the successful bidder.

San Mateo County Sheriff Candidate Earl B. Whitmore (left) discusses plans for the November campaign with newly appointed Perry A. Bygdnes, county chairman of the Whitmore for Sheriff committees. Whitmore defeated the incumbent sheriff in the June primary, his first defeat in 24 year. Bygdnes has been prominent in county affairs and is well known in banking and investment circles. Committees for Whitmore will be organized in every city, Bygdnes said.

Pushing a Car Across Country

By Ridgely Cummings

F.O.B., or freight on bill as we experts say, is a big item when you buy a new car. One of the ways purchasers save this cost is by going to Detroit, picking up their auto at the factory, and driving it home themselves.

Not everybody can get away from work and family long enough to do this, so another method of saving freight costs has sprung up, called the drive-away service.

These are agencies which act as middlemen between people who want their cars delivered and people who want to go somewhere and don't mind driving someone's car to that place.

I wanted to come west. For a month I had been the proud owner of a second-hand crate but it gave me so much trouble driving around the sprawling auto metropolis that I decided it would never stand the cross continental journey.

So I sold it and became a wealthy pedestrian. Then I registered with a drive-away agency, told them when I was born and why, made a satisfactory deposit to prove my financial responsibility, and was given a new convertible to drive to Phoenix.

The understanding was that I would be reimbursed for gas and oil and deposit plus a bonus if I delivered the vehicle without damage.

Nobody ever accused me of being a mechanical genius and my best friends hesitate to ride with me from Daly City to Sausalito, but I signed the contract.

The convertible had six miles on the speedometer when I climbed into it. Blossoming with extras, it was outfitted with automatic transmission, radio, heater and an array of gadgets on the dashboard that I didn't know anything about and so left strictly alone.

At noon on a Saturday I started, wandering around Detroit until I found the speedway heading west and merging with the week-end traffic bound for Michigan vacation spots. By nightfall I had passed through northwestern Ohio and was beyond Fort Wayne in Indiana.

I thought it would be more fun to stop in the smaller communities so that night found a room and a garage in the little town of Logansport, shopping center for a lush farming region.

The streets were crowded with farmers and their families, in for a haircut, a movie, a beer, or a soda and the Saturday night dance. People were friendly and a girl told me she was sorry she had a date herself but to come on out to the dance anyway and she would introduce me to a girl friend.

I explained I had two thousand miles to go and was weary already from the tension of trying to keep the car unscratched so declined, probably a big mistake. But take a tip from me, fellows, if you want a lot of smiles from luscious babes, just get yourself a shiny convertible full of chromium gadgets. It seems the girls just can't resist.

The next morning I finished with Indiana and got down into southern Illinois, where I saw the speedometer read four hundred and it was time to take out the "break-in oil," special oil they use on new motors, and have the engine flushed to get rid of all the little bits of steel that accumulate as the parts get adjusted.

Since it was Sunday, with many service stations closed and others working short-handed, I had quite a time finding a place where they were equipped to do this and at the same time willing and able.

But I succeeded finally and now that I had regular oil in the contraption I could open her up. I was sailing merrily down the highway toward St. Louis with heavy foot on the throttle when I came to a traffic jam and saw a big truck lying on its side in the ditch, on fire.

That slowed me down and I gave myself a pep talk about caution. It was a good thing too for the next day, when I was driving through Missouri, I listened to broadcasts giving the week-end traffic tolls and there were a surprising number of fatalities right along the route I had taken.

Speaking of broadcasts, that trip has made me an expert on soap operas and hillbilly music. For hours at a time that was all I could get, though for half a day I was within range of the University of Oklahoma station at Norman, one of the most literate radio stations in the country.

Space won't permit many details if I'm going to keep this piece within newspaper limits, so I'll have to telescope the rest of the trip.

There was the Mississippi, which costs two bits to cross on a toll bridge, muddy and rather unimpressive.

There was a night in the Ozarks, listening to much talk of hunting and fishing; a brief spell in Kansas, where instead of saying goodbye people say hurry back; and Oklahoma where the roads were lousy and where, in spite of all the oil wells, the gasoline was expensive because of a six and a half cent tax that must go into somebody's pocket for they certainly don't spend it on highways.

So it went, across Texas, New Mexico and into Arizona. Once past Amarillo, the country took on a grandeur that made travelling a continuous pleasure. There were winding mountain roads and long stretches across plains and deserts where the highway was flung out like a ribbon and one's speed imperceptibly increased until the big danger was hitting a soft shoulder and losing control.

Aside from speed the other hazards were going to sleep (the radio programs are so bad they keep you awake) and the trucks, huge roaring Goliaths that seemed impudently secure in the knowledge that they would survive any collision with a mere passenger car and constantly never gave up a hair's breadth of the road.

And so into Phoenix, where, believe it or not, I delivered the car without a scratch and collected the bonus.

What a car jockey that guy Cummings is! Next year I'll try the Indianapolis race — if somebody ties me down and holds a gun at my head.

The Institute of Forest Genetics, research branch of the U.S. Forest Service, is located in El Dorado county.

Tormey Calls For Cooperation At Colma Rally

Closer cooperation between the office of County Superintendent of Schools and the school boards was advocated from the floor at a meeting held recently in the Colma Community Center when a group interested in the election of James R. Tormey for this office asked concerning his attitude on this practice if elected on November 7.

It was alleged by a member present from one of the important school boards that the county office had not been represented at any of their meetings in several years. Those present, most of whom were from Daly City and Colma, advocated closer cooperation between the southern and northern portions of the county.

Tormey expressed assurance that under his administration if elected County Superintendent, he would attend school board meetings whenever wanted and that he was a firm believer in bringing the school to the people. He told how in 33 San Mateo County communities the Adult Education Center program of which he is the administrative head, is being taken to the people. Cooperation from his office would be mandatory so that the people would have full understanding of what the schools are doing.

Return to teaching the three R's and still retain those modern educational developments which are fundamentally sound was also indicated by Tormey, who pointed out that this was one of the seven points in his platform. He said that this was the first educational platform presented to the lectorate at a general election in San Mateo County in 44 years.

Sand Blocks Theft Of Daly City Car

Sand, about 10 square feet of it behind a vacant lot at Hillcrest and Vendome, foiled a would-be car thief last Monday morning, police reported today.

M. E. Schindler, 196 Santa Barbara, told officers that the thief had broken the rear window in his 1946 sedan. Behind the wheel of the machine, the inexperienced thug put the car in reverse instead of forward. The next second he and the vehicle were firmly stuck in sand behind the parking lot.

The thief made good his escape, but before Schindler could get his car back on the road he needed assistance of several pairs of strong shoulders.

Ice Cream To Be Given Away By Ice Cream Land

In order to get acquainted, Ice Cream Land, at 2195 Junipero Serra boulevard, will give a pint of ice cream to every resident in this area, it was learned from James M. Denny, the proprietor.

"I would like to know everyone and I would like all to know my products," asserted Jim. "The best way to accomplish that is to give away a representative sample.

"Of course, we have a plan to be followed. It isn't advisable to merely say come and get it. Therefor, we have divided the vicinity up into sections.

"Each resident in each section will receive a slip of paper on which will be printed an invitation. Just bring it to my store and the ice cream will be forthcoming.

"A suggestion was offered to the effect that everyone may not want ice cream, therefor we will allow 40 cents on any purchase in exchange for the aforementioned paper.

"You know, we carry milk shakes, coffee, sandwiches, all kinds of sundaes and so forth, so that there is bound to be something that will please all tastes.

"With it all, I would like to emphasize that the offer is good only upon receipt of the invitation which will be distributed in the immediate future."

Cub Pack Members Receive Awards

An initiation and the presentation of service awards featured last Friday's meeting of Daly City Cub Pack 61 at the Colma Community Center.

Bill Bertetta was initiated as a new member.

Wolf badges were awarded to Leo Kusbar, Gary Taylor, Dennis Kusber and Jimmy Stone.

Fred Lahr was presented with one gold and six silver arrow points.

The boys held a farewell for Anthony Stagnaro, by celebrating his 11th birthday with a birthday cake. Stagnaro "moves up" to Troop 106 of the Boy Scouts.

California ranks first in total number of big game animals on her federal forest lands with 444,000, according to the U.S. Forest Service.

U. S. Coast Guard Academy To Hold Tests Feb. 19-20

The annual competitive examination for appointment to the United States Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut, will be held on February 19-20, 1951, according to word received from Congressman Jack Z. Anderson.

The number of Academy candidates selected annually is based on the needs of the service, Anderson said, and all appointments are on a competitive basis. A candidate not only must pass the examination, but must receive a score high enough to assure appointment.

Briefly, candidates must be graduates of an accredited public high school or preparatory school, or be in actual attendance in his senior year at such a school, and have already completed three years of high school work.

Detailed information on all eligibility requirements can be had by writing for the booklet entitled "Career for Tomorrow" in care of the Commandant, (PTP) U. S. Coast Guard, Washington 25, D. C.

Anderson pointed out that there is no limit in the number of candidates from any area, but necessary papers must be completed before January 15, 1951.

Keller's Art Gallery Opens

No longer must residents of Daly City travel to the heart of San Francisco for art supplies.

That was the good news this week, as Keller's Art Gallery opened at 6789 Mission. Under the management of George Keller, the studio offers complete art restoration, picture framing and cleaning service in addition to a wide range of art materials.

As a prominent art dealer and Bay area artist, Keller is in a position to serve all the artistic needs of this community.

California Vets May Apply For Both State & Fed. Aid

The same World War II veteran may be eligible for both the low-cost home or farm financing benefits and the educational assistance offered by the State of California, according to Floyd D. Granger, veterans service officer, San Mateo county.

A number of veterans in San Mateo county have hesitated to apply for State aid in completing their studies for fear that they would thereby forfeit their right to obtain "Cal-Vet" farm or home financing later on, Granger said.

"There is some reason for this misunderstanding," he explained. "Prior to 1946, veterans were not allowed to make use of both types of State Benefit. But the Legislature took action in that year to correct the situation. The same State certificate of eligibility will serve for both benefits in the case of most World War II veterans."

The only exceptions are those veterans who did not enter the armed services until the last part of 1946. While eligibility for the Farm and Home Purchase Plan is open to a veteran who entered World War II service at any time prior to January 1, 1947, the educational assistance provisions of State law require at least 90 days of service prior to that date.

The veteran must either be a native of California or must have been a resident of this state at the time he entered military service. World War I veterans are still eligible for the Farm and Home Purchase Plan, provided they meet the requirements.

Application forms and information are available to interested veterans at the Veterans Service Office, in the Courthouse, Redwood City.

Navy Recruiters On Seven Day Week

The U. S. Navy recruiting office in the Post Office in San Mateo announces that they are accepting enlistments on a seven-day, full-week schedule.

The Navy recruiters also have a desk in the vestibule of the county courthouse in Redwood City where enlistments in the Navy are accepted Monday through Saturday noon.

Young men 17-31 years of age may volunteer in the service of their choice for four years (17-year-olds till age 21). Each man will recive trade training in a line of his choice, and will be sent to a trade school upon completion of 11 weeks of recruit training at San Diego, according to the needs of the service.

For further information on enlistment or anything connected with the naval service call at the above listed offices or phone DI 4-2781.

Jeff High Misses Lead SFC Band

Two pert young misses from Jefferson High school, Viviene Schultheis and Corine Noble, are leading the band for San Francisco City college this year.

The two 16-year-old majorettes can be seen at any of the SFC football games, high-stepping in front of the fine college band.

Vixiene is the daughter of Mrs. Ada Schultheis, 340 Hillside, and Corine is the daughter of Mrs. Betty Noble, 134 Woodrow. Both are juniors at Jefferson High school.

Gas Prices Hiked In Daly City Area

Daly City, as all Bay area motorists, are now paying four-tenths of a cent more per gallon of Standard Oil Company gas.

In announcing the increase, which went into effect Wednesday, Standard said it was to "cover higher costs of operation." Standard stations will now charge 25.3 cents a gallon for regular gasoline, instead of 24.9 cents, and 27.8 a gallon for ethyl, instead of 27.4 cents.

None of the other Bay Area firms have indicated they will raise prices immediately, although most say the subject is now "under study."

Specifications Attest To Henry J Leadership In Cars

Despite their surprisingly low prices, specifications of Kaiser-Frazer's new Henry J line attest that the new models are of the highest quality construction, fully functional and full-size in every important detail, it was learned from Impeartrice Bros., 7031 Mission street.

In addition, the new models abound in so many design, styling and mechanical innovations and advances that they have earned the description "America's most original automobiles."

Small only in respect to price, the Henry J Deluxe has one of most favorable engine power-to-car-weight ratios of any passenger sedan. Both the Henry J and the Deluxe models are equipped with Kaiser high-compression Supersonic engines, with scientifically counter-balanced crankshafts and positive air cooling for the lubrication system.

Forced air cooling, developed for military vehicles requiring constant oil cooling under all weather conditions and widely used in heavy-duty commerical vehicles, is offered by no other American sedan in the Henry J price range.

Dimensionally, the "spec" show also that there has been no skimping at the expense of passenger comfort. Unusual leg room is provided, particularly in front where there is a full 42 inches. Head room likewise is generous — 37½ inches in front and 35 in the rear. Seats are 54¾ inches wide in front and 56¾ in back.
